

C. Scholarship Application German Teacher Report

This form should be filled out by the most recent German teacher of the applicant. Applicants must have studied German to at least year ten level.

Many thanks for supplying this report for your student. The below student is applying for a scholarship to travel to Germany for ten weeks at the end of this year. Students live in host families and attend school with a host sibling. Our exchange seeks students who are resilient, open-minded and most likely to benefit from this experience. A working knowledge of German, and commitment to learn more, are a distinct advantage for this scholarship, but are not the only factor considered. For more information on the scholarship, please visit our website: sagse.org.au
